

Editors:
Krisztina Karsai, Adem Sözüer, Liane Wörner

DIGITAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE: A STUDYBOOK

Selected Topics for Learners and Researchers

Table of Content

Foreword - Prof. Dr. Adem Sözüer	V
I. Krisztina Karsai – Comparative Digital Criminal Justice: an Editorial.	1
II. Liane Wörner – A Viewpoint on “Comparative Criminal Law” in the context of a Project.....	7
III. Criminal Responsibility in Digitally Changing World.....	19
András Lichtenstein: Introduction to Criminal Law Jurisdiction and the Applicable Law in Cybercrime-related Cases.....	19
Ádám Ibrahim: NFT – Dirty Money Wonderland	30
IV. Mosaics of a Digital Criminal Procedure	39
Gizem Gültekin Várkonyi: Predictive Policing and Bias in a Nutshell: Technical and Practical Aspects of Personal Data Processing for Law Enforcement Purposes	39
Zsanett Fantoly – András Lichtenstein: Siri, Alexa and Co. in the Criminal Justice System. The Use of Virtual Voice Assistants in Criminal Investigation and their Admissibility as Digital Evidence.....	59
Zsolt Szomora: Covert Online Entrapment in Transnational Criminal Cases / Case Study (Italy – Hungary)	71
Andor Gál: Remote Criminal Court Proceedings in Hungary.....	82
Andor Gál: Remote Criminal Court Proceedings and the Principles of “Access to Justice” and “Fairness”	91
V. Digital Solutions for Criminal Sanctions and their Enforcement.....	103
Ádám Ibrahim: To Confiscate the Non-Confiscatable	103

Jasmine Hussein: Electronic Monitoring of Offenders – with Special Regards to Hungary.....	113
Jasmine Hussein: Rendering Electronic Data Permanently and Temporarily Inaccessible – The Hungarian Regulations in the Criminal Law Context	127
Zsuzsanna Juhász: The Application of Video Conferencing in Hungarian Prisons	137
VI. Abstracts and Comparative Aspects	145
Criminal Responsibility in a Digitally Changing World.....	145
1. Due Diligence and Digitalisation	145
2. New Crimes	146
3. Comparative Issues to be Addressed.....	147
Mosaics of a Digital Criminal Procedure	148
4. Police Field Work and Digital Evidence.....	148
5. Remote Criminal Court.....	151
6. Comparative Issues to be Addressed.....	156
Digital Solutions for Criminal Sanctions and their Enforcement.....	157
7. Digitalisation in Prisons	157
8. Digital Penalties and Jails.....	160
9. Comparative Issues to be Addressed.....	162